Professional Experience

More than 25 years in the healthcare industry in management and leadership roles, has brought Ilah Stolz a strong knowledge of national healthcare market trends and a keen understanding of executive recruitment and consulting challenges. Ilah played a key role in the creation, development and successful implementation of the Interim Leadership service line at B. E. Smith. Ms. Stolz held administrative accountability for the Interim Leadership service line for seven years prior to becoming the Executive Vice President of Corporate Development at B. E. Smith. She is experienced in all aspects of healthcare management and the administration of healthcare services, including not-for-profit and for-profit organizations. Her background and experience reflect a wide range of talents including program development, benchmarking, multi-facility consolidation and integration, operational and strategic planning, business development as well as clinical process improvement and redesign.

Prior to B. E. Smith, Ms. Stolz held executive and corporate officer leadership positions within healthcare organizations. She managed all levels of positions in a diverse range of clinical and non-clinical specialties, and was formerly a Chief Nursing Officer, Vice President of Patient Care Services, and Director of Nursing for organizations ranging from 212 beds to 750 beds. She has provided leadership for performance improvement and financial turnarounds in a variety of settings resulting in improved financial viability and improved clinical outcomes.

Ilah Stolz's expertise in assessment, planning, and process redesign, helps her make quality decisions in responding to operational challenges by improving processes to be more efficient and effective. Her proven track-record in recruiting and consulting for healthcare facilities ranging in size from small rural hospitals, to large medical centers that are part of for-profit and not-for-profit health systems, continues to solidify her position as Executive Vice President for B. E. Smith.
